

A Digital wireless emergency call system

- For use in toilets, washrooms and other facilities where an emergency alert system is required
- Wall mounted
- Comprises:
Emergency call unit with 3 m pull cord
Reset button
Emergency call alarm
- Multiple units (max. 9,800) can be linked to a central monitoring system or pocket pager - information on request
- Easy to install - no specialist installation required
- No wiring or external power supply required
- Compliant with UK 'Low Power Device' dispensation (no license required) and 433.92MHz transmission
- Individually coded with capacity for 1,000,000 codes, easy self-learning programme from indicator light
- Digital wireless signalling with a range of 50 m
- Batteries in emergency call unit and reset button last 8 years and are not user-replaceable
- Batteries in emergency call alarm are D cells and can be replaced
- Low battery indication:
Central monitor (if fitted - information on request) will display low battery warning message when the emergency call unit or reset button have a low battery
Emergency call alarm beeps intermittently when battery is low
- IP 65 rated; waterproof pull cord and reset button - can be cleaned with soap solution if required
- White plastic with red pull cord
- Note: Also available as separate components i.e. one reset button for many rooms/call buttons - information available on request

Cat. No.	985.31.000
----------	------------

Order qty: 1 set

1. User activates the alarm by pulling red pull cord
2. Alarm indicator sounds and the light flashes
3. Alarm is cancelled when reset button is pressed

Optional central monitor, range extender and pager available, information on request

